Dialogue Café Association – Dalia Sendra (daliasendra@casadoregalo.pt)

Dialogue Café (DC) is the first public high quality video collaboration network specifically designed for civil society – open to individuals and organizations with a social, educational or cultural mission - including foundations, civil society organizations, grassroots community groups, universities, schools, social enterprises, social entrepreneurs and innovators, artists and cultural organisations, public sector bodies and agencies and so on. We also seek to ensure diversity amongst our participants, paying particular attention to gender, age, and ethnic and socio-economic backgrounds.

Together with Cisco Systems and the Calouste Gulbenkian Foundation, the Dialogue Café Association has set up since 2010 a global network of physical spaces - Dialogue Cafés. It enables city-to-city and multi-city conversations and activities. So far there are 12 Dialogue café connecting Amsterdam, Cleveland, Lisbon, London, Melbourne, Northampton, Paris, Wroclaw, Rio de Janeiro, Florence and Ramallah and Beirut.
